

CANMORE SUMMER THEATRE FESTIVAL

August 11-22 | Canmore Recreation Centre Field

TICKETS: PineTreePlayers.com

PROGRAM

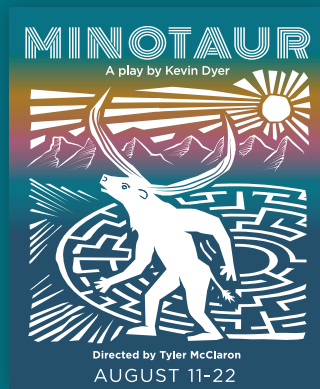

Minotaur

by Kevin Dyer

Produced by special arrangement with Plays for New Audiences.

Minotaur tells the story of Freddie, a young boy caught between the modern world and Ancient Greece. Freddie must journey to the centre of the Labyrinth to defeat the Minotaur, or his ancient and modern-day lives will both come crumbling down.

Content warning: Depictions of violent conflict, emotional manipulation, familial violence, and gun violence; sound of gunfire at several points in the show; discussions of the trauma of war, death, and the death of a child; and violent language.

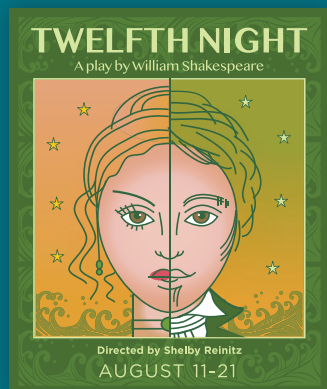

Twelfth Night

by William Shakespeare

Twelfth Night follows the story of Viola, who, believing her brother is dead after a shipwreck, goes undercover as a man named Cesario to take a position as Duke Orsino's page. Orsino is in love with Olivia. Viola falls in love with Orsino and Olivia falls in love with Cesario. This would be bad enough but when Viola's brother Sebastian arrives, chaos ensues.

Content warning: Depictions of armed conflict in the form of sword fighting, bullying; discussions of mourning the death of a sibling.

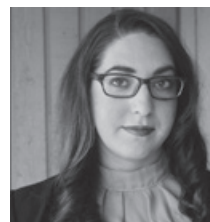

A MESSAGE FROM THE DIRECTORS

Tyler McClaron
Director Minotaur

Tyler McClaron

He had built a giant maze, a Labyrinth. And at the centre of the maze, he kept a terrifying creature. Deep inside, within our own twisty, turny places, we have hidden many a creature of our own creation. The more we distress and give focus to doubt, the more we give power to our inner enemies. Self-doubt is a dominating presence which plays far too active a role in our daily lives. Let us revoke the power we have given these creatures. Let us find courage in the companionship of our friends as we strengthen each other's resolve to achieve our goals. May we strive to mimic brave Theseus: the water-wing-wearing hero who lies within. May we strive to mimic steadfast Ariadne: the virtuous child of treacherous surroundings.

I'm thrilled to bring Shakespeare's Twelfth Night to the CSTF stage. I've often felt a strong desire to explore what it would mean to work with an "unconventional/non-traditional" cast, and I've been so lucky to have the opportunity to do so now. I had no idea what I was getting into with regard to the journey of growth and artistic development that this project would bring, but it has been an amazing experience. We've created something special and explored the boundaries of gender identity in a production that in and of itself explores the idea of gender. Twelfth Night has long been recognized as having a special place in the 2SLGBTQ+ community, and we've brought it to another level with our all female and non-binary cast. But beyond the gender identities of the actors and the characters they portray, this company of actors and our production team have worked together with one goal in mind; to do justice to Shakespeare's classic story. And I think we have. I hope you enjoy our version of Twelfth Night.
