THE SNOW QUEEN

By Charles Way based on the story by Hans Christian Andersen

Produced by special arrangement with Plays for New Audiences.

Childhood friends Gerda and Cei are the closest of companions; where Cei is brash and daring, Gerda is steady and kind. But when Cei is stolen away by the Snow Queen, her heart hardened by a chilling enchantment, Gerda must brave the elements on a quest to rescue her. With the help of new friends she meets along the way, Gerda must find the courage to save the world from endless winter.

This play contains:

Themes of love, isolation, abuse, and violence;
 Depictions of verbal abuse, pain, anxiety, panic, and grief;
 Implication of self-harm; and
 Presence of theatrical firearms and knives.

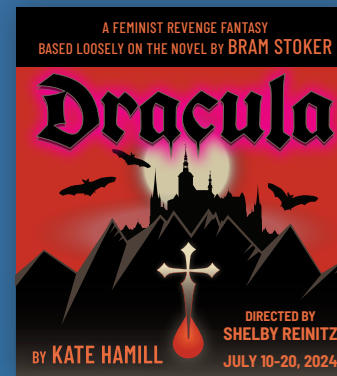

DRACULA

A Feminist Revenge Fantasy,
 Based on the novel by Bram Stoker
 by Kate Hamill

Featuring music composed by Shelby Reinitz with vocal arrangements by Irene Poole.

DRACULA is presented through special arrangement with TRW PLAYS 1180 Avenue of the Americas, Suite 640, New York, NY
 10036. www.trwplays.com

In this darkly comic new adaptation, award-winning playwright Kate Hamill sinks her teeth into Bram Stoker's seductive tale of Victorian vampires. There are no damsels in distress, no romanticized villains—just people fighting for good in a dark world where charming predators lurk around every corner. At times comical and campy, at times deeply unsettling, this bloody romp is a thought-provoking take on the classic story of Dracula.

This play contains:

Themes of love, abuse, and violence;
 Depictions of pregnancy, intimate partner violence, seizures, frenzied mental agitation, self-harm, death and suicide;
 Implication of infant cruelty; and Presence of stage blood, needles, stakes, swords, and knives.
