ABOUT THE PLAYS

DAD JOKE INTERVENTION

By Wade Bradford

Directed by Ron Deans

Produced by special arrangement with Eldridge Plays & Musicals www.histage.com

A dad's cheesy jokes prompt his family to stage a "Dad-Joke Intervention" led by the serious Mrs. Wright. As the absurdity unfolds, they question whether she can cure his pun obsession or if they're doomed to endure his endless dad jokes forever.

This play contains flashing lights; depictions of shock therapy, unconsciousness, and mental health distress.

MUDFLAP GIRL

By Sya Sen

Directed by Candise McMullin

Produced by special arrangement with the playwright @syayyc.

In the 1970s an iconic image of a silhouetted woman started appearing on truck mudflaps. This is her story.

This play contains flashing lights, coarse language; descriptions of sexuality, sexism, and diet culture.

WAITING FOR THE END OF THE WORLD

By John Shanahan

Directed by Sherry Thompson

Produced by special arrangement with Eldridge Plays & Musicals www.histage.com

The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse gather in a park to usher in the start of Armageddon. But Famine's running late and isn't answering his cell phone. Should they kick off the end of the world anyway? Or do they need to wait for their fourth member to maintain proper symmetry?

This play contains flashing lights; coarse language; insensitive and glorified descriptions of war, famine, death, and pestilence.
