ANNE OF GREEN GABLES

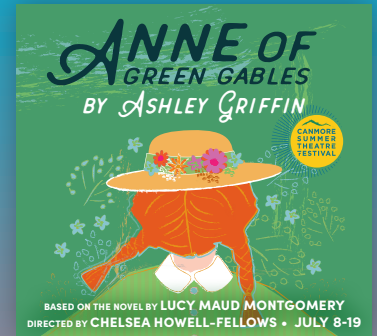

by Ashley Griffin

Based on the novel by Lucy Maud Montgomery
Directed by Chelsea Howell-Fellows

Meet Anne Shirley, a red-haired orphan with an imagination a million miles wide! Anne unexpectedly arrives in the small town community of Avonlea and soon captures the hearts and minds of her newfound family and neighbours. Anne's story, told through the lens of an ensemble cast, reminds us that we are all shaped by the people we surround ourselves with and that finding one's place in the world is a journey best traveled with the support and love of others.

This play contains:

Depictions of verbal abuse and bullying, youth drunkenness (inadvertent), death of a family member

LITTLE WOMEN

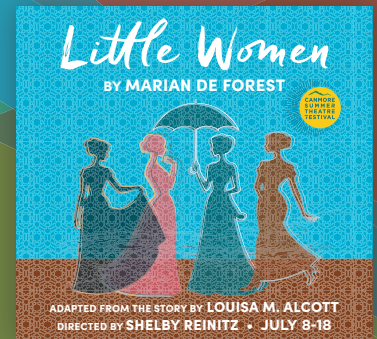

By Marian De Forest

Adapted from the story by Louisa M. Alcott
Directed by Shelby Reinitz

Little Women guarantees a night filled with laughter, tears and a lifting of the spirit. Based on Louisa May Alcott's life, the story follows the adventures of four sisters - Jo, Meg, Beth and Amy March. Jo is trying to sell her stories for publication, but the publishers are not interested - her friend, Professor Bhaer, tells her that she has to do better and write more from herself. Begrudgingly taking this advice, Jo weaves the story of herself and her sisters and their experience growing up in Civil War America.

This play contains:

- Mentions of war;
- Depictions of intimacy in the form of kissing and familial touch, poverty, sexism/ traditional gender roles (era accurate), illness and death
